

STATINTL

Nancy Tuckerman Reports for Job

Nancy Tuckerman, who will succeed Letitia Baldridge as White House Social Secretary late in May, moved into her new apartment at 2500 Q st. yesterday. She has wound up her affairs in New York where she has been a travel agent for the past 10 years.

After she is unpacked and gets up the curtains and draperies, Miss Tuckerman will take a brief holiday before starting in to understudy Miss Baldrige at the White House. She will spend the last two weeks in May working very closely with Miss Baldrige before the popular Tish leaves the White House on June 1 to take an important new post in Chicago with the business interests of President Kennedy's father.

Miss Tuckerman is the niece of Admiral Jerauld

Wright, USN (Ret.), and Mrs. Wright, who have a home on 38th st. nw. Miss Tuckerman stayed with the Wrights on weekends while apartment hunting.

ADMIRAL Wright, the former Supreme Allied Commander, Atlantic, has just been appointed by President Kennedy as the new U. S. Ambassador to Nationalist China.

CPYRIGHT